

Psychodrama Summer Camp Professionals With Jeff Chapdelaine, JD, MSW

Wednesday July 7, 2026 – Sunday July 11, 2026

Psychodrama is an action based therapy method in which clients use spontaneous dramatization, role playing, and dramatic self-presentation to investigate and gain insight into their lives that is applicable to personal, therapeutic and trial work. This workshop will focus on personal work. Therapists, professionals and lawyers are welcome to attend.

Host Hotel:

“Summer camp” will take place at...

The University of Massachusetts Amherst

Campus apartments!

Dates: July 7, 2026 - July 11, 2026

Day 1:	4:00pm-9:00pm *With a working dinner
Day 2:	10:30am- 6:30pm
Day 3:	10:30am-6:30pm
Day 4:	10:30am- 6:30pm
Day 5:	10:00am-1:00pm

22 hours of training

For more information and to register contact:

Registration Fee: $1690
($1575 if paid by March 1, 2026)

This includes the training, a private hotel room, and all meals.

Cost should not be a barrier for anyone attending. Please contact me for scholarship information.

Jeff Chapdelaine at:
jeff@jeffchaplaw.com
617-905-7979

Jeff Chapdelaine, JD, LICSW is an Attorney, Forensic Social Worker, and Forensic Drama Therapist based in Boston Massachusetts. He represents clients in both Criminal and Civil cases. He consults nationally on plaintiff civil cases and on cases where people are accused of committing crime, working with lawyers and on both trial strategy and trauma informed client focused case preparation. His consulting company trains both lawyers and mental health professionals on areas where legal systems and mental health systems intersect. He serves on the Massachusetts CLE Criminal Curriculum Advisory Committee and as faculty locally for MCLE and CPCS training programs, and nationally for the National Criminal Defense College in Macon Georgia, the Trial Lawyers College, and at several other programs.